Are you considering self employment?

If you have a business idea, or are just interested in learning more about self-employment this workshop is for you. Understanding what it takes to set up and run a business is essential knowledge for business owners, and can help you stand out from a crowd if you do chose to take an employed role instead.

You will be able to meet other businesses, receive free mentoring from expert advisors in the field and grow your network of contacts.

Network with local Armed Forces Businesses

Learn about the basics of business planning and what you need to consider before starting your business

Learn about bespoke funding opportunities available through the Solent LEP

Talk through your business ideas

Develop your skills in enterprise!

Workshop sponsored by ABF The Soldiers' Charity.

LOCATION: Room A124, First Floor, Havant Public Service Plaza, Civic Centre Rd, Havant PO9 2AX

RSVP: By 18th April via email to louisa@x-forces.com with your name and organisation.
