On what criteria are applications assessed?

We have set criteria that we use to assess your suitability and that of your business to join the NatWest Accelerator specialist programmes. What we judge you on is simple and directly related to what will be asked of you on the programme. We want to make sure we can get the best out of you so that you can get the best out of us.

Please note however that there are no right or wrong answers to these questions. These are just the principal things we need to know about. So please bear these things in mind if you apply.

In addition the below criteria will also help us determine whether your business is better suited to our High Growth, Climate, Fintech or Purpose-Led Accelerators, or if there is alternative support that would be better suited.

The kinds of things we consider are:

- Are you the owner or decision maker in your business?
- Are you working full time on this business?
- Do you know there are customers who want your product or service?
- Do you employ staff?
- Are you aiming to build your team?
- Are you looking to grow or scale your business?
- Are you open to coaching, ready to learn and develop?
- If your business is already growing, are you committed to accelerating that growth?
